COMMUNITY EVENTS

Summer Concert Series

These free concerts take place once a month throughout the summer.

Ferguson Farmer's Market

Founded in 2002, the award-winning Ferguson Farmers' Market brings our community live music, a festive family atmosphere, and a wide variety of edible delights, including homemade jelly, farm fresh eggs, cheese, honey, spices, and organic meats.

Ferguson Twilight Run

This award-winning event includes 1 mile, 5 kilometer, and 10 kilometer races through historic neighborhoods in North Saint Louis County. The races take place in May at twilight.

Proceeds from the event are donated to healthy programs.

Fourth of July Festival

The City of Ferguson's Independence Day event that includes a parade down Florissant Road and a festival and fireworks located in January-Wabash Park! Families are invited to celebrate with kid-friendly attractions like pony rides and a petting zoo, as well as food, beverage, game booths and several live bands.

Taste in Ferguson

The Taste In Ferguson is a tasting event highlighting some of the wonderful restaurants in Ferguson & Florissant. This event will highlight all kinds of foods as well as music, art and children's activities!

Ferguson Street Fest

Ferguson Street Fest is North St. Louis County's largest annual outdoor music festival that draws thousands of visitors each September. Renowned for its great live music, crazy fun events and mouthwatering food vendors, the event has hosted some of the Midwest's top musicians and performers.

Northern Lights Festival

Held each year on the Sunday after Thanksgiving, Ferguson welcomes in the holiday season with a Christmas Market Under the Stars that includes a variety of gift and food vendors, live holiday music and lots of family activities and entertainment.
